

Driving While Intoxicated

Up to 5years in prison or a fine of up to 1,000,000 yen

Driving Under the Influence

Up to 3years in prison or
a fine of up to 500,000 yen

"Driving while intoxicated" refers to being in a state where, due to the influence of alcohol, the driver is unable to operate a vehicle normally.

CHIBA POLICE

Drunk driving: Never do it, never allow it, never tolerate it.

Providing a Vehicle to:

A driver who is intoxicated

Up to 5 years in prison, or a fine of up to 1,000,000 yen

A driver who is under the influence

Up to 3 years in prison, or a
fine of up to 500,000 yen

Providers of alcohol

A driver who is intoxicated

Up to 3 years in prison, or a
fine of up to 500,000 yen

A driver who is
under the influence

Up to 2 years in prison, or a
fine of up to 300,000 yen

Passengers

A driver who is intoxicated

Up to 3 years in prison, or a
fine of up to 500,000 yen

A driver who is
under the influence

Up to 2 years in prison, or a
fine of up to 300,000 yen

Memoirs of Convicted Drunk Drivers

The consequences of drunk driving:
Five true stories and five regrets

Will you still drink and drive?

Chiba Police
Website

Chiba Police
official YouTube

